

HCM3030 : Federal and State Healthcare Programs

This course reviews the organization and delivery of federal and state healthcare programs and the impact these programs have on the financing, regulation, and quality of the overall healthcare delivery system. Special focus is provided on the mechanisms and impact of federal and state reimbursement of healthcare services.

Credits 4.0

Prerequisites

None

Corequisites

None