

MIS3101 : Application of Management Information Systems

The course provides an introduction to applications of business modeling such as entity-relationship diagrams and dataflow diagrams. This course emphasizes application of management information system tools to support modeling.

Credits 4.0

Prerequisites

None

Corequisites

None