MIS6995 : Information Systems Capstone

The course provides students an opportunity to demonstrate professional competencies and capabilities covered in the MIS curriculum by conducting a study in an advanced IT or IS related topic or undertaking the analysis, design, and implementation of a real-world application.

Credits 4.0

Prerequisites

MIS6000: Principles of System Development

MIS6010: Project Management

MIS6020: Corporate Information Systems Management

Corequisites

None