ITS4211 : Network Security

The course covers the network security principles and infrastructure protection strategies. IP security, cryptography, prevention/detection systems, wireless security and system security. The course covers the network security principles and how to mitigate the risk of an attack.
Credits 4.0
Prerequisites
ITS3104: IT Security
Corequisites
None