

LGS2001 : Civil Litigation

This course examines civil procedures and the court system including the role of judges, attorneys and juries. Venue, jurisdiction and ethical considerations area studied. The course enables students, under the supervision and control of an attorney, to assist in pre-trial practice, including drafting complaints, answers and pre-trial motions; preparing witnesses, conducting preliminary investigations; and assisting in the preparation of the case for trial.

Credits 4.0

Prerequisites

LGS1001: The Legal Field: Law and Ethics

Corequisites

LGS1001: The Legal Field: Law and Ethics