

MIN7500 : Theology and Research in Ministry

This course provides students with an opportunity to develop their own theology of ministry and begin laying the academic foundations for their dissertation or ministry project. Biblical and theological resources for a theology of ministry will be examined, and students will explore different models of integrating theology and ministry. Considerable attention will also be given to the process of research in ministry and writing.

Credits 4.0

Prerequisites

MIN7000: Learning Skills for Ministry

Corequisites

None