

MIN7565 : Principles and Practice of Worship

This course offers a foundation for understanding the ministry of worship from biblical and theological perspectives. It also examines the various elements of corporate worship and the organization of the worship ministry. Special issues in worship will also be considered, including the variety of worship styles, the use of media, and cultural and generational diversity.

Credits 4.0

Prerequisites

None

Corequisites

None