

NSG3007 : Foundations for Professional Nursing

This course introduces the student to baccalaureate nursing practice centered in the art of caring and integrating principles of holism in its foundation of professional service. Students utilize critical thinking and communication skills as they explore issues related to the evolution and philosophy of nursing, theoretical foundations of practice, health care delivery systems, finance, and health care policy focused on quality outcomes and patient safety.

Credits 4.0

Prerequisites

Admission into the RN to Bachelor of Science in Nursing or RN to Master of Science in Nursing program

Corequisites

None