

NSG3036 : Introduction to Nursing Research

Students are introduced to concepts, issues and processes in nursing research and its application to practice. Emphasis is placed on the review, analysis, evaluation, and application of current nursing research. Selected research studies are critiqued.

Credits 3.0

Prerequisites

NSG3023, NSG3024, NSG3027, NSG3032 For RN to Bachelor of Science in Nursing program Prerequisites: Statistics (undergraduate or graduate course) and NSG3005

Corequisites

NSG3037, NSG3038_P, NSG3068