

NSG4076 : RN to BSN Capstone Synthesis

In this clinical course, the student integrates and synthesizes the curricular components of assessment, health promotion/clinical prevention, research, professionalism, teaching, leadership, information management and technology, as well as healthcare policies to create and implement a clinical project relating to the healthcare needs of an aggregate within the community. Creation and implementation of the project will include direct and indirect care of clients in the selected aggregate. (5 credits 3 credits didactic, 2 credits clinical practicum [60 hours])

Credits 5.0

Prerequisites

None

Corequisites

NSG4074: Health Promotion and Clinical Prevention