

NSG6001 : Advanced Nursing Practice I

The focus of this course is to synthesize content from advanced pathophysiology, pharmacology and evidence-based treatment modalities to develop expertise in disease management and collaborative practice. This course will prepare the learner to manage the most common health problems across the lifespan. A minimum grade of B is required to pass this course.

Credits 4.0

Prerequisites

NSG5000: Role of the Advanced Practice Nurse: Transformational Leadership in Advanced Practice

NSG5002: Advanced Theoretical Perspectives for Nursing

Corequisites

NSG6005