

PHA3129 : Introduction to Medicinal Chemistry

This course reinforces biochemistry with a review of drug chemistry and resultant biological events. Discussion focuses on biologically active compounds and cover base structures, parent compounds, metabolites, and structure modifications for altered therapeutic effects.

Credits 3.0

Prerequisites

None

Corequisites

None

Notes

Quarter 1