

PHA4350 : Clinical Practice Lab II

This course engages students in a review of material presented throughout the curriculum using the Pharmacist Patient Care Process. Students are expected to solve disease-state and medication related problems, develop patient care plans, and defend proposed recommendations. Students will be expected to develop, and ultimately master, effective written and verbal communication skills by the conclusion of the course sequence.

Credits 1.0

Prerequisites

None

Corequisites

None

Notes

Quarter 6