

PHA5002 : General Pharmacology II

Continue to gain knowledge of basic and applied pharmacology necessary for health care professionals. Explore essential pharmacological principles with special emphasis on pharmacokinetics and pharmacodynamics. Examine medications used in the treatment of disease processes of the cardiovascular and respiratory systems.

Credits 4.0

Prerequisites

PHA5001: General Pharmacology I

Corequisites

None