

PTA2059 : Current Rehabilitation Issues

This course promotes student integration of knowledge and skills from previous coursework and the first clinical experience. Students gain foundations in career readiness and lifelong learning, while investigating the role of the physical therapist assistant in specialty areas of physical therapy and working with diverse patient populations. Students will perform therapeutic interventions in wound care, lymphedema management, and vestibular rehabilitation.

Credits 3.0

Prerequisites

PTA2046: Advanced Habilitation/Rehabilitation

PTA2050: Professional Seminar

PTA2057: Physical Therapy through the Lifespan

Corequisites

PTA2058: Clinical Externship I