

PAS5174 : Professional Seminar II

The Physician Assistant (PA) profession has evolved throughout its development in the medical community. Students explore the professional development required in clinical PA practice with preparation for clinical rotations to include licensure, hospital credentials, liability, malpractice, safety, and building an individual portfolio. Activities will examine leadership and professionalism through accountability. This is a pass/fail course.

Credits 3.0

Prerequisites

Successful completion of coursework in preceding academic quarter

Corequisites

None