

PAS5366 : Surgery and Procedures II

Surgical and clinical procedural competencies are essential for PA practice. Students examine the indications and risks associated with clinical procedures performed in various practice settings. Through lectures and labs, students continue to apply clinical and technical skills.

Credits 2.0

Prerequisites

Successful completion of coursework in preceding academic quarter

Corequisites

None