

UVC4000 : Career Exploration Seminar

Designed to help pending graduates develop an effective approach to the job search, this course emphasizes the understanding of industry expectations and job trends, assessing and developing skills for the work place, developing a professional portfolio with cover letters and resumes, projecting professionalism, and the practical applications of networking, self-promotion, successful interviewing, salary negotiations, and overcoming rejection.

Credits 4.0

Prerequisites

None

Corequisites

Taken within 3 quarters (campus-based) or 9 classes from Graduation (South University, Online Programs)