

PSY4030 : Multicultural Psychology

The examination of psychological conditions according to varied populations including gender, ethnicity, religion, geography, culture, age, sexual orientation, physical disability, education, and social class. This course is meant to expose students to the impact of these contexts on the intra- and interpersonal psychosocial framework for individuals across development.

Credits 4.0

Prerequisites

PSY2010, PSY2022, PSY3010, and PSY3300 with grades of "C" or better

Corequisites

None