

Governance and Ownership

The South University Board of Managers has approval authority over new campuses, senior administrative officers, the Strategic Plan, the annual budget, and further authority as outlined in the Bylaws of the South University Board of Managers. The position of Chancellor is the highest administrative position at the South University.