

PHA4239 : Pharmaceutical Calculations

This course reinforces the mathematical processes and computations essential to the practice of pharmacy, with added emphasis on board preparation and experiential readiness. The course assessments will objectively evaluate competency and proficiency in pharmaceutical calculations expected of professional practitioners of the art.

Credits 3.0

Prerequisites

None

Corequisites

None