

LGS2100 : Paralegal Internship

This course is designed for paralegal and legal studies majors to validate their skills through a 60-hour supervised internship experience local to them in a private legal office, government legal department, corporate legal department, or other legally related site where they perform legal and administrative duties appropriate to the field in a professional manner. Students are required to attend regularly scheduled class meetings to interact with other paralegal interns and the internship coordinator. Here, they will complete assignments and submit a final written report. Students are required to find the internship site and seek approval from the department chair a quarter or term before enrolling in the course. A final grade of "C" or better is required.

Credits 4.0

Prerequisites

All LGS1000 and LGS2000 level courses or concurrent

Corequisites

None