ACC2010 : Automated Accounting Systems and Processes I

This course explores how to implement and use automated accounting systems. Topics may include setting up a chart of accounts, journalizing business transactions for sales and expenses, creating receivables and payables schedules, and producing financial statements for small and medium size businesses.

Credits 4.0

Prerequisites

ACC1002, ITS1000

Corequisites

None