

BUS3041 : Managerial Communications

This course will help students to develop leadership skills through improved communication. Focus will be on those types of communication encountered in management functions: creating documents, presentations, leadership, managing meetings, building teams, internal and external organizational communication and professional career preparation.

Credits 4.0

Prerequisites

BUS2023, MGT2037

Corequisites

None