

CRJ2200 : Introduction to Criminal Courts

This course provides a comprehensive look at the criminal court system in the United States. All levels are explored (local, state, federal, and international courts). Courtroom work groups as well as the roles of judges are examined. Relevant issues such as judicial selection, judicial decision making, and judicial review are covered. Trends in the court system will also be discussed.

Credits 4.0

Prerequisites

CRJ1001: Introduction to Criminal Justice System

Corequisites

None