

MCJ6001 : Criminal Justice Administration

This course is a critical examination of theories, concepts, and principles concerned with organizational behavior and functions of personnel administration with special attention paid to criminal justice applications. More specifically, this covers how these concepts may be practically applied to administrative and managerial practices in criminal justice organizations.

Credits 4.0

Prerequisites

None

Corequisites

None