

MCJ6705 : Theory and Practice of Institutional Corrections

This course will examine the theory, structure, and effectiveness of institutional corrections including prisons and penitentiaries, the history and development of punishment and corrections in this country, and operation of institutions. Prisoners, prison life, and prisonization (imprisonment) are also addressed in this course.

Credits 4.0

Prerequisites

None

Corequisites

None